For vs Since

"For" is used when we want to say the amount of time for an action.

"Since" is used when we want to say the starting point of an action.

For

Annie has been reading a book for 3 weeks

Ted has not been paying attention for this whole semester

Trevor has been drinking alcohol for 10 years now.

Since

The parents have been teaching their kids since March

Tom and I have not been writing secret messages since last summer.

The students have been thinking notes since:

- the first class
- 3 p.m
- the class started
- 2 hours ago x
